

Electronic Water Temperature Methodology
(Last rev. 23/11/2015)

Water temperature is measured at permanent stations using Campbell Scientific Model 107 temperature sensors

These sensors are located approximately 1m below low tide.

Sensor elements are replaced every year according to the manufacture's recommendations.

Figure 1

Bocas platform. Sensor in water near right corner

Figure 2

Galeta pier showing met. Station tower. Sensor is below the tower.